

EDIFIER®

Edifier® Technology Company, Ltd has grown from a small national company established in Beijing, China in May 1996 that initially focused within the China domestic market, in which it is a market leader today. Since creation, Edifier® has grown into a major international organization, expanding its operations into North America, South America, Europe, the Middle East, and Asia Pacific regions. Currently having sales offices in Canada, Hong Kong, China, Australia and Argentina with product R&D and strategic design in Vancouver, Canada and Beijing, China

A vertically structured/integrated company, Edifier® undertakes in-house R&D, product design, tooling and plastic injection, printed circuit board production (PCB), design and assembly, wood cabinet assembly, silk screen printing, transducer (speaker) design and assembly, final assembly and global marketing and sales for all Edifier® branded products. Edifier® operates its two solely owned manufacturing facilities, which provides in excess of 8 million audio units manufactured and distributed around the world per annum. The manufacturing facilities are located within Songshan Lake Industrial Park, in Dongguan, China, and the other located in Beijing, China. Overall, Edifier® and Edifier® International employ in excess of 3,000 people worldwide, with distributors currently appointed in more than 60 countries.

Edifier® International specializes in the design and manufacturing of high-end consumer audio electronics for both the lifestyle and multimedia markets, providing a wide selection to suit each individuals taste. Edifier® International is renowned for its development and use of acoustic technology, superior manufacturing standards and uncompromised quality in design and production of audio electronics. Edifier® is committed to excellence in all audio markets in which it operates, which include PC audio, multimedia audio, docking audio, IT lifestyle audio and home lifestyle audio. Edifier® is committed to excel and extend the audio experience into further evolving both the global brand and product recognition, with a passion for sound. Edifier® continues to expand its operations and presence, moving towards the goal of becoming a world class, internationally recognized company specializing in quality audio solutions for the ever evolving consumer electronics industry
