Catalogue 2011

LANDMANN headquarter in Osterholz-Scharmbeck, Germany

Dear Customer,

In the 2011 season, we again want to provide the BBQ market with innovative ideas. This page features an overview of the most important novelties.

We are looking forward to assisting you with our products and our service in the coming year and wish you success for the 2011 season.

Your LANDMANN Team

This catalogue has been designed as a practical guide through the world of Landmann barbecues:

Basic Catalogue Structure

The front part features the products under the LANDMANN brand, and the subsequent part introduces the product range under the brand GRILLCHEF BY LANDMANN.

How Can I Find a Particular Barbecue Type?

The product range comprises three main sections:

- Charcoal barbecues
- Gas barbecues
- Accessories

The main groups contain the individual product groups (e.g. kettle barbecues). The respective page numbers that take you to the LANDMANN or GRILLCHEF BY LANDMANN ranges are visible at a glance.

These pages also provide information on any barbecues of the same product group that may be listed in the other ranges.

Our brands

is the brand for BBQ parties. It addresses consumers who expect high-quality workmanship and a modern design and for whom innovative functionality is important.

is the brand for universal BBQ fun. It especially addresses a younger target group, features an unpretentious design and offers everything a barbecue needs. The addition "BY LANDMANN" clearly underlines the affiliation with the LANDMANN product world.

pantera

Compact Power

Thanks to its innovative design, high-quality material, and versatility, pantera presents a new definition of grilling with gas. See page 30-33 for further details.

atracto
